as the New Testament, without any additions to or subtractions from, among which fundamental principles are:

- a) That Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, the Father; that His kingdom for the spiritual salvation of mankind was established on the first Pentecost after His crucifixion, and that Christ is now ruling upon His throne, and that His laws, as promulgated by Him and through His Apostles and inspired writers, under the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit, are absolute and exclusive for the governing of His body, the Church, in all spiritual or doctrinal matters.
- b) Faith, Repentance, Confession and Baptism are essential for the admission of an alien sinner to the Church, or Kingdom of Christ.
- c) That the local congregation of the Church of Christ is an autonomous organization, subject only to Christ, the Head of the Body universal, and to its divinely authorized and duly appointed elders who shall govern only the congregation of which they are duly appointed as overseers, and only in harmony to the teachings of Christ, as revealed in the New Testament.
- d) That the teachings of the Bible are and will be sponsored by said organization under the direction of its officers on Sunday and on any other days of the week that the opportunity and expediency of the time and occasion may authorize by teaching the Bible or any part thereof, with or without lesson helps, lesson aids and commentaries, and by teaching the congregation as a whole, in one body, or by dividing the congregation present into suitable and proper classes, the expediency thereof to be determined by the elders and/or minister of the congregation.

- e) That no mechanical musical instrument of any kind whatsoever shall ever be used in accompaniment with the song service of worship or work to be carried on or conducted by said congregation or religious body.
- f) That no creed, other than the New Testament, shall ever be used, prescribed, or enforced in whole or in part of said religious body or any of its members in connection with the work and worship to be carried on by said religious body.
- g) That the care of orphans and widows may be administered either in private homes by individual Christian families, or in Orphan homes or homes for the aged, operated and controlled by members of the Church of Christ, and that such Orphan homes and homes for the aged may be supported out of the church treasury, in order that orphan children and widows may be cared for, and missionary work to be treated in the same manner.
