Until unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect members of the Board of Directors, the members of the Board of Directors shall be designated by the Developer and may be changed from time to time as the Developer, in its sole discretion, may determine.

(C) Until unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect at least a majority of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors shall consist of three (3) members. The first election of Directors shall not be held until required by the Condominium Act, including Section 718.301(1)(a)-(e) thereof, or until the Developer elects to terminate its control of the Condominium Owners Association. The provisions of Section 718.301(1)(a)-(e) are set forth in Article (D) below.

(D) Section 718.301(1)(a-e) of the Condominium Act provides as follows:

"718.301 Transfer of association control.-

- (1) When unit owners other than the developer own 15 percent or more of the units in a condominium that will be operated ultimately by an association, the unit owners other than the developer shall be entitled to elect no less than one-third of the members of the board of administration of the association. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association:
 - (a) Three years after 50 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;
 - (b) Three months after 90 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;
 - (c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business;
 - (d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business; or

- (c) Seven years after recordation of the declaration of condominium, or, in the case of an association which may ultimately operate more than one condominium, 7 years after recordation of the declaration for the first condominium to operate; or, in the case of an association operating a phase condominium created pursuant to §718.403, 7 years after recordation of the declaration creating the initial phase, whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 5 percent, in condominiums with fewer than 500 units, and 2 percent, in condominiums with more than 500 units, of the units in a condominium operated by the association. Following the time the developer relinquishes control of the association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned units in the same manner as any other unit owner except for purposes of reacquiring control of the association or selecting the majority members of the board of administration."

(E) Beginning with the election at which unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect at least a majority of the Board of Directors, the affairs of the Condominium Owners Association will be managed by a Board consisting of seven (7) directors. After unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, directors of the Condominium Owners Association shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the manner determined by the By-Laws. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS. The affairs of the Condominium Owners Association shall be administered by the officers designated in the By-Laws. The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the members of the Condominium Owners Association and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The names and addresses of the officers who shall until serve their successors are designated by the Board of Directors are as follows:

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

TURTLE BEACH CONDOMINIUM OWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, the undersigned President of Turtle Beach Condominium Owners Association, Inc. (the "Corporation"), a corporation not for profit organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, by Articles of Incorporation filed with the Secretary of State on July 3, 1996 (the "Articles"), does hereby certify as follows:

1. Amendment of Articles. In accordance with the provisions described in 2 below, the Articles of the Corporation shall, upon the proper filing and recording of this Certificate, be amended, but only in the following respects:

A. Article II of the Articles of the Corporation is hereby amended so as to substitute in the place of Article II as originally filed, the following:

"ARTICLE II

PURPOSE. The purpose for which the Association is organized is as follows:

(1) To provide an entity pursuant to the Condominium Act, which is Chapter 718, Florida Statutes, 1995, for the operation, management, maintenance and control of such one (1) or more condominiums as may be from time to time submitted to its jurisdiction. A condominium shall be deemed to be submitted to the jurisdiction of the Association if the declaration of condominium of the condominium provides that the operation of the condominium shall be by the Association."

2. Adoption of Amendment. The amendment of Article II of the Articles of the Corporation was adopted pursuant to the procedures set forth in Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and Article IX of the Articles of the Corporation by unanimous agreement of all Directors, Members and Officers of the Corporation at a special meeting held on August 14, 1996. All Directors, Members and Officers of the Corporation were present at and voted to adopt the
