ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

Samaria Mission Center, Inc.

I, Gil Boo Lee, the undersigned, hereby make, subscribe, acknowledge and file with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a corporation for not-for-profit in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this corporation shall be:

Samaria Mission Center, Inc.

The principal office and mailing address of this corporation shall be 7201 Five Point Circle #210, Tampa, Florida 33634.

ARTICLE II

Existence of Corporation

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III

Purposes

(a) The general nature, objects and purposes for which this corporation is exclusively organized and operated are exclusively for religious, social, educational, civic and cultural purposes to provide for spiritual and religious needs of its parishioners and others. This corporation shall receive and maintain funds of real and/or personal property and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinabove and hereinafter set forth, shall use the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for its religious, charitable or educational purposes.

(b) The corporation shall be engaged in all activities associated with providing religious worship and instruction, churches, schools, missions, pastoriums, and other institutions connected therewith of a religious, educational, charitable and benevolent character so that people may be generally instructed and guided concerning these articles of faith which are most surely held among the Gospel-preaching churches; to advance spiritual growth and enlightenment, moral and personal purity among people; to promote home and foreign missions; and to aid in the spread of the Gospel of JESUS CHRIST.

(c) The corporation shall be engaged in providing human resources and intensive activities affecting the lives of the people of God engaging in the following activities:

- (1) Organizing an evangelical Christian Taekwondo team;
- (2) Organizing a Gospel mission;
- (3) Organizing a community program for drug and alcohol abuse treatment;
- (4) Christian family counseling;
- (5) Providing scholarships to African-American students;
- (6) Spirituality training for African-American Christian leaders;
- (7) Establishing a community youth center for African-Americans;
- (8) Establishing a Bible College Seminary.

The corporation may engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida.

(d) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any member, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable reimbursement may be paid for expenses rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by a nonprofit organization exempt under the Internal Revenue Code or the regulations issued thereunder, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations issued thereunder.

(f) In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the corporation, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or to the Federal, state, or local government for exclusive public purpose.

ARTICLE IV

General Powers

This corporation shall have and exercise all powers for the transaction of any or all lawful business for which a corporation may be incorporated under this chapter necessary or convenient to effect any and all of the charitable, scientific and educational purposes for which the corporation is organized, subject, however, to the following:

(a) This corporation shall be operated exclusively for, and shall only have the power to perform, activities exclusively within the meaning, requirements and effect of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended heretofore or hereafter.

(b) This corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(c) This corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(d) This corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(e) This corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(f) This corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(g) This corporation shall not engage in any prohibited transaction as defined in Section 503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.
