SUBJECT: COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED
Ref. Number: W96000017194

We have received your document for COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT INCORPORATED and your check(s) totaling $131.25. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Simply adding "of Florida" or "Florida" to the end of an entity name DOES NOT constitute a difference. Please select a new name and make the substitution in all appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file.

When the document is resubmitted, please return a copy of this letter to ensure that your document is properly handled.

If you have any questions about the availability of a particular name, please call (904) 488-9000.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (904) 487-6927.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
NEIGHBORHOOD AND COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT INC.

(A Corporation Not for Profit)

We, the undersigned, for the purposes of forming a corporation not for profit under the Laws of Florida, hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME AND OFFICE

The name of this corporation shall be

NEIGHBORHOOD AND COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT, Inc.

Its principal office shall be located at the 4870 Kings Meadows Lane City of Jacksonville, County of Duval and State of Florida.

ARTICLE II - CORPORATE PURPOSE

This corporation is organized and exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code. This corporation is organized and chartered for the general purpose of utilizing a comprehensive approach to neighborhood revitalization. The goal is to eliminate blighting influences such as dilapidated buildings, drugs, litter, crime, illiteracy, inadequate lighting, and sub-standard infrastructure from all neighborhoods; remedy the underlying causes of this condition through job training, affordable housing, commercial redevelopment, economic development, and coordinating human resource services. The organization will form partnerships with public and private resources to stimulate reinvestment in urban neighborhoods by providing services to residents and owners of real property in specified areas of operation such as:

Dissemination of information of housing, commercial and community improvement programs;

Encouraging the provision of improvement loans and other financing to assist and stimulate the rehabilitation, repair and improvement of the supply of residential housing;

Facilitating all levels of government to provide services, improvements and incentives to stimulate the conservation of all neighborhood infrastructure, including housing;

Providing technical assistance in housing, social and commercial revitalization matters and other activities for the community good;

Encouragement and assistance in formation of local organizations of neighborhood residents to achieve these goals;

Identifying financial support for these neighborhood organizations, and providing grant and loan funds for those who could not otherwise obtain financing;

Provide supplemental educational resources and assistance.

To engage in other activities and functions as are proper and in furtherance of the goals and purposes of the Corporation so long as such activities are permitted to be carried on by corporation exempt from the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE III - POWERS

The corporation is authorized and empowered to do all things necessary to carry on and accomplish the purpose for which it is organized and chartered, including authority and power:

To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind and description.

To purchase, hold, sell and transfer the shares of its own capital stock.

To acquire land for the purpose of constructing improvements thereon, whether residential or commercial in nature.

To construct improvements, either residential or commercial in nature, and thereafter to resell or to lease such land and improvements to private citizens or to government.

To promote and assist the growth and development of small business concerns and others.

To have one or more offices, to carry on all of any of its operations and business and without restriction or limit as to the amount to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of every class and description.

To acquire, construct, convert, or expand plant facilities for lease or sale.

To borrow or raise monies for any of the purposes of the corporation and from time to time without limit as to amount, to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments and evidences of indebtedness, and to secure the payment of any thereof and of the interest thereon by mortgage upon or pledge, conveyance or assignment in trust of the whole or any part of the property of the corporation, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired, and to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of such bonds or other obligations of the corporation for its corporate purposes.

To provide such auxiliary services as may be essential and necessary to the effectuation of the main purposes of the corporation.

To do all things allowed by law for a corporation exempt from federal income taxation under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore set forth, this corporation shall have no power or authority to engage in any activity which would disqualify it as a corporation exempt from federal taxation under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future Internal Revenue Code) and notwithstanding any prior grant of any such violative power hereinbefore, this provision shall have the effect of voiding and nullifying such grant insofar as it is intended to be construed as the superior and paramount provision affecting the corporation.

ARTICLE IV - LIMITATIONS

The corporation shall neither have nor issue any stock. No part of the assets or income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, director, officer or any other private individual, and no member, director, officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporation's assets on dissolution of the corporation. No person, firm or corporation shall ever receive any dividends or profits from the undertaking of this corporation except that reasonable compensation or consideration may be paid to persons selling real or personal property and none of the assets shall be distributed to any member, director or officer of this corporation or to any private individual. The corporation shall not engage in a regular business other than the business for which it is formed of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit or conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Qualification for Membership. Members of this corporation shall be persons who have evidenced concern and interest in its purposes and have also evidence in their business, professional or public occupations, or in their activity in organizations related to the purpose of this corporation, characteristics of leadership and dedication towards stimulating the economic revitalization of neighborhoods in the area of promoting and assisting the growth and development of residential and commercial districts.
