Dear Mrs. Lunt,
My phone number is listed in the phone book and above.

At No time do we use any "doing business as name" in our filing document.
The AKA means "also known as" and are the initials of the company, which we had planned to use on checks, since the name of the company is so long. Are you saying General Motors Corp cannot use G M C?

The Florida Statute do not require a Fl.
Corp. to file a fictitious name report, since anyone who wants to know who is connected with the corporation, and its registered name and agent need only contact your office.

However, to satisfy you, we will delete the "also known as" reference.

Why did you send me a printout of the involuntarily dissolved old corporation?

Sincerely,
Thomas R Newman
