TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Articles of Incorporation of SUCCESS CHRISTIAN CENTER, INC., a Florida Not For Profit Corporation. The undersigned persons, acting as incorporators of a corporation not for profit under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME AND ADDRESS

The name of the corporation is SUCCESS CHRISTIAN CENTER, INC., 2103 GRAND STREET, JACKSONVILLE, FL 32208 and it shall conduct its operations and its places of business principally within the United States, and incidentally outside the territory of the United States as determined by the By-Laws except as restricted herein.

ARTICLE II - TERM OF EXISTENCE

The corporation shall have perpetual duration.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES

The corporation is a not for profit corporation. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

(a) The object, business, and purpose of this corporation shall be to devoted to promoting Christian principals and values and enhancing individual, family and community development; to participate in Bible-based teachings to our individual members and to the community at large; to utilize an outreach ministry to spread the message of the Church to all people, to assist in charitable work of any nature deemed beneficial and in the best interests of our members and the community, and to raise funds for carrying the same into effect in any manner consistent with these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws, and permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and the Constitution of the United States of America.

(b) Another specific and primary purpose for which this corporation is formed is to operate educational facilities for the advancement of Christian principals and education and for other charitable purposes, by the distribution of its funds for such purposes, and particularly for positive spiritual, emotional, physical, and educational advancement and development of all youth.

(c) The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are to operate exclusively for such religious, charitable, educational, and any other lawful purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax-exempt organizations under the code.

(d) This corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IV - POWERS

(a) The Corporation is to have any and all powers to do any and all things necessary to expedite or carry out the purposes and objectives of this corporation and as may be determined by the Board of Directors and subject to the By-Laws and posses all rights, privileges and immunities to enjoy benefits granted corporation under the laws of the State of Florida provided that only such powers as are in furtherance of tax exempt purposes of the Articles of Incorporation herein are contemplated.

(b) Reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes provided that, obligating those persons, associations, and corporations, is permitted in Section 503 of the Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not have the power to exercise any part nor shall it directly or indirectly, engage in any activity that would prevent it from obtaining exemption from tax or to lose exempt status as a corporation described, permitted and limited under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERS

The corporation is organized upon a nonstock basis as defined in Section 617.011 of the Florida Statutes. The corporation shall have a membership distinct from the board of directors. The authorized number and qualifications of the members of the corporation, the manner of their admission, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability for dues and assessments and the method of collection thereof, shall be as regulated in the bylaws.

ARTICLE VI -BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted by board a of directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be no less than five (5); provided, however, that such number may be changed by a bylaw duly adopted pursuant to the bylaws of this corporation. The laws shall otherwise provide for the extent and limit of their powers, duties, and privileges, and further shall provide for the manner of appointment, qualifications, or election and other matters relating thereto.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board of the board, and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law that relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation and bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.
