Subject: UBR waver of reinstatement fee. Ref: Voter Action, Inc. #N96000005019

Dear Sir or Madam,

Apparently I don't communicate very well and for this I apologize. I did not receive my 2003 UBR and request a waver of the reinstatement fee as the situation is beyond my control. I have no idea as to why my mail is not arriving at this address but I have been in touch the USPS and the FDLE addressing this problem. Hopefully this is what you requested in of December 3, 2003 asking for a filled out UBR or waiver of reinstatement fee.

I went to your site and discovered I can not download the 2003 UBR therefore this letter in response to waver. I called this AM requesting a form and the Specialist told me to submit a letter requesting a waver of reinstatement fee. Hopefully this letter is sufficient.

I apologize for any misunderstanding but I have a problem with my mail service, which is beyond my control and did not receive the UBR. Could not download it from your site Sunbiz. If you need other information please inform me as I do not wish to loose this name and I am on as fixed income. I don't know how else to say, not filing was beyond my control and I request a waver of the reinstatement fee.

Thank you for your help and understanding.

Sincerely,

Frederick J. Ebbers, PD

Subject: Mail Problem, Reinstatement

Dear Sir or Madam,

This reinstatement form showed up in my door about 3 days ago, looking as though it had been in the war. I haven't a clue as to where it has been or why, but it is typical of my mail delivery. I do not keep diary as to when my different obligations are due and I apologize. I am including a letter I mailed to the Inspector General of the USPO listing my grievances. I seem to have a serious mail problem, which needs attention.

I am including a check for $61.25, which is for 1 year. Hopefully this is the amount I owe. If it is in error please notify me.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Frederick J. Ebbers, President/Director
