ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT TO
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF SOUTHEASTERN LAW INSTITUTE, INC.

RECEIVED
JUN 23 AM 9:10
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Southeastern Law Institute, Inc. adopts the following amendments to its Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE ONE

Article Two reads as follows:

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its members, trustees or officers, except to the extent permissible under law.

ARTICLE TWO

Inasmuch as no member are entitled to vote, the following amendment to the Articles of Incorporation was adopted by the directors on June 18, 1997:

Article Two is amended to read:

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its members, trustees or officers, except to the extent permissible under law.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit, of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE THREE

The remainder of the Articles of Incorporation shall remain unchanged.

ARTICLE FOUR

The effective date of the Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation shall be June 19, 1997.
