otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The manner in which the directors of the Corporation shall be elected or appointed is as follows:

The Incorporators of the Corporation shall appoint the Board of Trustees of the Corporation and the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of an Artistic Director, a Producing Director and a Financial Director. The Artistic Director shall serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees of the Corporation shall ratify and confirm the appointment of the initial Board of Directors, and shall make all future appointments to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be responsible to the Board of Trustees for the artistic, administrative, and business management of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees may further delegate authority to committees or individual Trustees as it deems necessary for the carrying out of the purposes and business of the Corporation.
