ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF OCEAN CLUB COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

1. The Articles of Incorporation of Ocean Club Community Association, Inc., a Florida corporation not-for-profit (the "Association"), created pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes were filed on December 9, 1996, Document No. N96000006241.
2. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, the Association adopts the following Articles of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation.
3. New Language is indicated by underscored type.
Deleted language is indicated by ~~struck through~~ type.
4. Section C of Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation entitled "Membership" is hereby amended as follows:

1. Membership will be established by either of the following: (a) acquisition of fee title to a Unit in a Condominium, (b) acquisition of an ownership interest therein, (c) voluntary conveyance or operation of law, and (d) by compliance the Community Association's membership requirements. The membership of any Person automatically will be terminated when such Person is divested of all title or ownership in such Unit; provided that nothing herein contained will be construed as terminating the membership of any Person or owing fee title to or a fee ownership interest in two or more Units at any time while such Person or entity retains fee title to or a fee ownership interest in any Unit.

2. Regardless of any provision to the contrary contained in the Community Association's Governance Documents, after the effective date of this amendment, upon record transfer by a Member of his Unit, the transferee shall be required to pay a contribution fee of Twelve ~~Eight~~ Thousand Dollars ($12,000 ~~8,000~~) to the Community Association in order to become a Member and the membership of the transferor shall automatically terminate unless the transferor retains record fee simple title to another Unit.

3. Each such contribution fee paid to the Community Association shall be applied to the Community Association's Reserve and Capital Funds in such amounts or proportions as the Board of Directors may decide with the approval of a majority of the Condominium Voting Representatives. The amount of the contribution fee may be increased, decreased or eliminated upon recommendation of the Board of Directors and approval within ninety days thereafter by two thirds of the Condominium Voting Representatives.

4. Members who have not paid a contribution fee upon their purchase of a Unit and who purchase an additional or subsequent Unit shall be required to pay such fee as set forth herein in connection with the purchase of each additional or subsequent Unit.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Member

(i) who has paid a contribution fee to the Community Association with respect to a Unit or who is the original purchaser of such Unit from the Developer and paid Working Capital Contributions as part of the closing costs for the purchase of such Unit; and shall be entitled to receive a credit against the contribution fee referred to above, the amount of such credit to be equal to (a) the amount of contribution fee previously paid to the Community Association with respect to the Unit the Member has sold, or (b) the aggregate of the Working Capital Contributions previously paid to the Developer as part of such closing costs as evidenced by the Settlement Sheet prepared at the time of the purchase of such Unit from the Developer.

6. Further notwithstanding the foregoing, the contribution fee will not be imposed with respect to any transfer of title to a Unit (i) where the beneficial owner remains the same person or entity after the transfer, (ii) that is between husband and wife or domestic partners pursuant to a marital or domestic partnership property settlement arrangement ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, or (iii) by gift, inheritance, or intestate succession from a Member to a son, daughter, spouse or domestic partner of the Member or to a trust which grants beneficial ownership of the Unit to a son, daughter, spouse or domestic partner of the Member.

7. Ownership of a Unit and payment of the contribution fee as set forth above are the sole qualifications for membership in the Community Association and membership will be appurtenant to, and may not be separated from, ownership of a Unit. An Owner's membership in the Community Association may

two thirds of the Condominium Voting Representatives.

4. Members who have not paid a contribution fee upon their purchase of a Unit and who purchase an additional or subsequent Unit shall be required to pay such fee as set forth herein in connection with the purchase of each additional or subsequent Unit.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Member

(i) who has paid a contribution fee to the Community Association with respect to a Unit or who is the original purchaser of such Unit from the Developer and paid Working Capital Contributions as part of the closing costs for the purchase of such Unit; and shall be entitled to receive a credit against the contribution fee referred to above, the amount of such credit to be equal to (a) the amount of contribution fee previously paid to the Community Association with respect to the Unit the Member has sold, or (b) the aggregate of the Working Capital Contributions previously paid to the Developer as part of such closing costs as evidenced by the Settlement Sheet prepared at the time of the purchase of such Unit from the Developer.

6. Further notwithstanding the foregoing, the contribution fee will not be imposed with respect to any transfer of title to a Unit (i) where the beneficial owner remains the same person or entity after the transfer, (ii) that is between husband and wife or domestic partners pursuant to a marital or domestic partnership property settlement arrangement ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, or (iii) by gift, inheritance, or intestate succession from a Member to a son, daughter, spouse or domestic partner of the Member or to a trust which grants beneficial ownership of the Unit to a son, daughter, spouse or domestic partner of the Member.

7. Ownership of a Unit and payment of the contribution fee as set forth above are the sole qualifications for membership in the Community Association and membership will be appurtenant to, and may not be separated from, ownership of a Unit. An Owner's membership in the Community Association may not be transferred, pledged or alienated in any way, except upon and incident to the transfer of title to the Owner's Unit, and then only to the transferee or mortgagee of such Unit.

8. This amended Section C of Article IV shall become effective upon its recording in the Office of the Secretary of State, State of Florida. For a period of ninety days (90) after such effective date, the Community Association will waive the contribution fee in the amount of Twelve ~~Eight~~ Thousand Dollars ($12,000 ~~8,000~~) but (subject to paragraph 5 above) will collect a contribution fee in the amount of Eight ~~Six~~ Thousand Dollars ($8,000 ~~6,000~~) and place the same into the Reserve and Capital Funds as aforesaid but only with respect to transfers of title to Units where the contract of purchase and sale has been executed prior to or within thirty (30) days after such effective date.

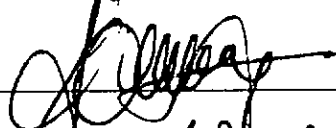

All other sections of Article IV of the Articles of Incorporation remain unchanged.

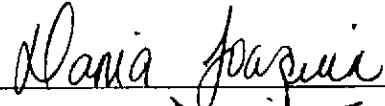

5. Pursuant to Article XII of the Articles of Incorporation and Section 617.1002, Florida Statutes, this amendment was approved by in excess of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the Condominium Voting Members at a duly noticed meeting of the membership held on March 15, 2022. The number of votes cast by the voting members was sufficient for approval of the amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned President and Secretary of this corporation have executed these Articles of Amendment this 28th day of March, 2022.
