RE: Islanders Sports Club # N97000001473

Pursuant to our conversation telephonically on 12-18-98 I thank you for giving us this opportunity to provide you with the facts relating to our demise on our corporate filing for 1998.

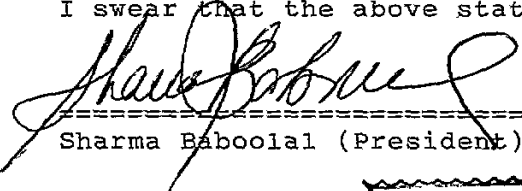

We filed our report since July 1998 and it was returned for corrections which specifically required the designations of the officers of the Corporation (see attached). We promptly made this correction and sent back the file within thirty days.

We never recieved any acknowledgement on this and it was only until we recieved the attached letter dated 11-10-98 to our dismay, we found out that our Corporation was dissolved administratively.

Mr Toner, in our present operation as a non profit charitable organisation, it is imperative that our corporation remains continously active ie. without any gaps. We assure you that we have made our best effort and we take our corporate filing with full attention as far as its importance.

We are resubmitting the application with the check and on behalf of the members and staff of Islanders Sports Club, we deeply express our appreciation for your assistance on this matter

I swear that the above statement is true and correct.
