ARTICLE III

The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized is(are):

To provide a center where young people can receive help with homework, improve leadership skills, participate in organized athletic activities and learn the dangers of drug and gang involvement.

In addition to the above, said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organizations shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding sections of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

ARTICLE IV

Manner of election and compensation of directors

The manner in which directors are elected and compensated is as follows:

The board of directors will consist of a minimum of four members and a maximum number that will be defined in the corporation by-laws. New and replacement directors will be elected by the serving directors. Term limits will be specified in the corporation by-laws. All directors serve in a voluntary capacity and will receive no compensation for serving on the board of directors. To be considered eligible for a directorship, an individual must be a natural person and at least eighteen years of age in accordance with the Florida Statute #617.0802.
