proper, for the furtherance, fostering, or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized; and to aid or assist other entities whose activities are such as to further accomplish or attain any of such purpose notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the corporation exempt purposes of organization set forth in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

- V. The manner of election of directors shall be identified in the by-laws.
- VI. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall insure to the benefits of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the clause hereto. No part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of attempting to intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purpose of this corporation. The corporation will exercise only those rights and powers conferred by the laws of the state of Florida upon non-profit corporations.
- VII. Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purpose of the corporation in such a manner, or to such organizations (s) or corporations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding section of any future federal tax code) or shall be distributed to the Federal, state or local government for public purposes as the Board of Directors determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes.
- VIII. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in all Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the statute, and all rights conferred upon directors are granted subject to their reservation.

The foregoing Amendments were adopted by the Board of Directors of the corporation on March 31, 1999 in accordance with the manner prescribed by Florida § 617,1006. There are no member or members entitled to vote on the amendment.
