ARTICLE III
TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation shall have perpetual existence, commencing with the date of execution of the Articles of Incorporation filed with the Florida Secretary of State in April 21, 1997.

ARTICLE IV

PURPOSES AND POWERS OF THE CORPORATION

A. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific and literary opportunities and purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for scientific, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or such corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"). To the extent consistent with the preceding sentence and permissible under Florida law, the purposes of this Corporation shall include, but shall not be limited to: provide charitable, education, scientific and/or literary opportunities to the public of Central Florida, and the surrounding communities; and to provide religious education in a private church setting.

B. This Corporation shall be authorized to carry out any and all acts and to exercise any and all corporate powers which may now or hereafter be lawful under the laws of the State of Florida to the extent applicable to corporations not for profit and that are not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation.

C. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the following provisions shall apply:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or private persons, (except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes) and no director, officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article IV.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including publishing or distributing statements) on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the code, or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax Code.
4. The Corporation is organized pursuant to the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act and does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit and is organized for nonprofit purposes.
