From: Greg Gahris- Secretary

June, 20, 2010

Gentelmen,

It is with sadness that I am compelled to write this letter resigning my position of Secretary for the remaining months of 2010. I am resigning only my position on the executive board and will continue as a member of the organization. I am resigning due to reasons of personal health, professional requirements and geographic distance. My resignation has nothing to do with any other reasons or conflict with members of the board or membership. I have enjoyed my affiliation with BOCF and hope the club well in their further efforts. I will always have admiration for the group and its membership. My resignation is effective immediately.

Regards,
