To Whom It May Concern:

Attached please find Amendments to our Articles of Incorporation. Upon applying to the Internal Revenue Service for Exempt Status, we discovered that our original articles were inadequate for a non-profit organization. It is our hope that these amendments and additions will be sufficient.

We would like to hereby request a certified copy of the amendments and have included a check to cover the total cost of this process. We await receipt of the certified copy most anxiously, as our application for exempt status cannot be completed without it. Thank you very much for your assistance with this matter. If we have failed to accurately or sufficiently comply with the requirements for the amendments, please notify us as soon as possible, and we will make every effort to comply.

Sincerely,

Sherilynne P. Rader

Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following articles of amendment to its articles of incorporation.

FIRST: Amendments adopted:

Article III (Amended)
Purpose

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article V (Amended)
Limitation of Corporate Powers

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Article IX (Added)
Provision for Dissolution of Corporation

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
