RE: Document # N97000003520

Dear Sir or Madam;

Attached please find a copy of the report I sent to you ON TIME. It would appear no one from your department responded to it. As I explained in the letter that accompanied my report, I did not receive the forms from you, but did make a concerted effort to comply with the law by sending all the appropriate information as required, and on time. I even asked that someone respond to me if I needed to do more because I wanted to avoid problems. No one did, except with this notice that our status had been dissolved.

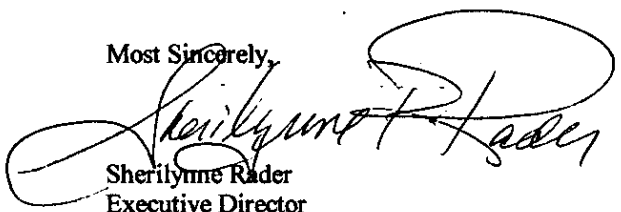

By way of further explanation, our office has moved. Apparently your office did not receive our change of address notification. To further complicate matters, my former landlord has been most uncooperative about forwarding any mail that may inadvertently continue to be sent to their address. Unfortunately for me, all this causes no one but my company any distress or inconvenience. And it has certainly resulted in a considerable amount of both for us.

Somewhere in Tallahassee our original check # 1239, dated 4/30/01 for $61.25 is still floating around along with the original report and my letter thanking you for all your efforts to help Cherish the Child avoid these problems. You may file it wherever you wish. Or continue to ignore it as you have been doing so well all these months.

This is the first time in my life, personal or professional, that I have ever written an unpleasant letter to the government. Congratulations.

I trust that this time everything will be handled correctly and our corporate status will be reinstated by year end. I look forward to receiving confirmation from your office.

Most Sincerely,

Sherilynne Rader

RE: Nonprofit Corporation Annual Report
For the Year 2000
Cherish the Child, Inc. Document # N97000003520 (0)

Dear Sir or Madam:

Herein you will find payment of the required fee and a reproduction of the 2000 Annual Report for Cherish the Child, Inc. We apparently did not receive the documents this year, and only a last minute review of files revealed that the registration fee has not been paid for this year. I pray that you will accept this information in place of the actual official form. I have been conscientious to include all the information requested on the form sent in prior years, and have included updated data.

If there is anything further that I need to do, please inform me as soon as possible, as I am most anxious to avoid penalties and problems. Thank you so much for your kind assistance in this matter. I know that this will require extra work on your part, and I am most grateful for your help.

Respectfully,

Sherilynne P. Rader, Executive Director
Cherish the Child, Inc.
