ARTICLE X DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution or winding up of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the corporation, shall be distributed to a not-for-profit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority vote of the directors.

ARTICLE XII PRIVATE FOUNDATION RULES

In any year that the corporation is a "private foundation", as defined in Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, it shall not: (a) engage in any act of "self-dealing", as defined in Section 4941(d), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a); (b) retain any "excess business holdings" as defined in Section 4943(c), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a); (c) make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a); or (d) make any "taxable expenditures" as defined in Section 4945(d), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a).

During the period the corporation is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509 of the Code, it shall distribute for the purposes defined in these Articles of Incorporation, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by Section 4942(a).

ARTICLE XIII DIVIDENDS PROHIBITED

This corporation may not pay dividends to its members, directors, or officers, although this corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, or officers for services rendered and may confer benefits upon its members in conformity of its purposes and as permitted by Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE XIV
PURPOSES OF CORPORATION

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent law.

ARTICLE XV
EARNINGS

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the organization), and no member, trustee, or officer of the organization or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the organization's assets on dissolution of the organization.

ARTICLE XVI
PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) or participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

I, the undersigned, being the incorporator of this corporation, for the purpose of forming this not-for-profit charitable corporation under the laws of Florida, have executed these Articles of Incorporation, incorporated on this December 3, 1997.
