RE: Attorney's Real Property Council of Northeast
Florida, Inc.
Court Games, Inc.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

My partner's secretary spoke to one of your staff members today about the delinquent filing for Court Games, Inc. I am sending this letter in accordance with that discussion. This letter covers the 2000 filings for both corporations, plus our expense check to pay the fees.

I am respectfully requesting waiver of the late fee for Court Games, Inc for the following reason (which is also the reason that the Real Property Council is coming late to you, as well). I must readily admit that my reason is embarrassing and is not a commendable excuse.

In the late winter, my secretary decided to return to doing litigation. I then started using my daughter, who was then pregnant with our first grandchild. She became subject to problems and went home for a month or more of bed rest. Hence, I have been without a secretary for several months awaiting the return of my daughter, and I cannot get the work out fast enough. (My daughter delivered a boy prematurely but all is well.)

Thank you for your consideration.
