issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

- B. To operate exclusively in any other manner for such religious, charitable, and educational purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or under any corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal Tax Laws.
- C. The specific purpose for which the Corporation is organized is to promote the welfare of individuals by providing quality, health and social services.
- D. In furtherance of these purposes the Corporation may exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations.

ARTICLE IV

DURATION

The term of existence of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE V

EARNINGS AND ACTIVITIES OF CORPORATION

- A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III.
- B. No director, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the Corporation.
- C. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate, nor intervene, in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

- D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (A) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (B) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- E. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation, or that are not in furtherance of any non-tax exempt purposes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

ARTICLE VI

STOCK

The Corporation is to be organized on a non-stock basis.

ARTICLE VII

MEMBERSHIP

The qualifications for members, and the manner of their admissions, rights, duties, and obligations, if any, shall be regulated by the Bylaws for this Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations, organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Such assets may also be distributed to the Federal Government, or to a State or Local Government for public use. Any such assets not so disposed shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, to such organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
