Article III

Corporate Purpose, Powers and Rights

The purpose of this Corporation is to provide to operate exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, education and eleemosynary purposes, and in, furtherance of such goals, it is authorized to accept, hold, administer, invest and disburse for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, education and eleemosynary purposes, such funds and other property, real personal or mixed, as may from time to time be given, bequeathed, devised, sold or leased to it, absolutely or in trust, by any other individual, individuals, firm or corporation for such objects and purposes, or any of them, and for no other purposes; to receive gifts and give and make financial and other types of contributions and assistance to charitable, religious, scientific, literary, educational and eleemosynary organizations; to receive any property, real personal or mixed, in trust, under the terms of any wills, deeds of trust, or other trust instruments, for the foregoing purposes, and in administering the same, to carry out the directions and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditures of the principal as well as the income for one or more such purposes authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it was received; to receive, take title to, hold and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations or other securities of any corporation(s), domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes; and in general to do all things that may appear necessary and useful in accomplishing the purposes hereinabove set forth.

2. In furtherance of its corporate purposes, the Corporation shall have all of the general and specific powers and rights granted to and conferred on a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, appropriate for the achievement of the foregoing goals and purposes; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activity which would be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in Section 501 (c)(3) and 170 (b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time (the "Code"); but if at any time the Corporation be deemed to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of the Code, then so long as the Corporation is deemed a private foundation, it shall not, as provided in Section 508(e) of the Code, fail to require its income for each taxable year to be distributed at such time and in such manner as to not subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

3. To have and exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a Corporation organized under the not for profit corporation law of the state of Florida by law may now or hereafter have or exercise.

Article IV

Membership

Membership of the Corporation shall be open to any persons desiring to promote the goals of the Corporation. Members shall be admitted to the Corporation upon application to the Board of Trustees in the manner described in the By-laws. All individuals named as officers or directors of the Corporation shall be entitled to become members in the manner as provided in the By-laws.

1. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

2. Officers shall be elected by the Board of Trustees at an annual meeting and shall take office at the beginning of the fiscal year immediately following their election and serve until their successors are duly elected and installed.

3. The names of the persons who are to serve as officers of the Corporation until the first meeting of the Board of Trustees are:

President	-	William P. Brown
Vice President	-	Norma Walters
Vice President	-	Michelle E. Brown
Secretary	-	Theresa A. Buckner
Treasurer	-	Peter C. Pappas

Article VII

Board of Trustees

1. The Board of Trustees shall be the Executive Board of this Corporation and shall have general supervision, management and control of the business, affairs and activities of this Corporation, subject, however, to other articles of the Articles of Incorporation and the By-laws. The initial Board of Trustees shall consist of three (3) members who shall serve until the first election thereof. The Board of Trustees may be increased from the initial three (3) members from time to time and any vacancies may be filled by a majority vote of those members of the Board of Trustees present at any regular meeting or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose provided a quorum of the Board is present. The Board of Trustees, however, shall never consist of less than three members.

2. The names and addresses of the members of the initial Board of Trustees shall be as follows:

Article VIII

Use of Assets

1. The assets and income derived from the assets of this Corporation shall be used solely for the purposes set forth in Article III of these Articles of Incorporation. Any disbursements shall be at approval and direction of the Board of Trustees and the members in accordance with the By-laws. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or, (b) by a Corporation described under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

4. It is intended by the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation that the Corporation shall possess the status of an organization exempt from Federal income taxation under the provision of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code. Accordingly, no part of the affairs of the Corporation shall be administered, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever which might jeopardize the tax exempt status of the Corporation.

Article IX

By-laws

The By-laws of this Corporation shall be made, altered or rescinded by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present of this Corporation present at any meeting of the members provided a quorum is present and further provided written notice of the proposed By-laws or amendments thereto shall be given to the members at least one week prior to the date of such meeting.

Article X

Amendment

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time by a resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present at any annual or special meeting provided a quorum is present and further provided written notice of the proposed amendment has been given to the members in accordance with the provisions of the By-laws.

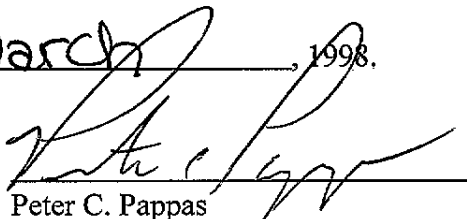

Article XI

Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purpose of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, education or eleemosynary purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or the Federal, state or local government, as the members shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. In no event, however, may the assets to be disposed of be distributed to or for the benefit of any member, trustee, officer or other private person, other than as reasonable payment for services rendered by such person.

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a not for profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, does make, file and record these Articles of Incorporation, and does certify that the facts herein stated are true; and has accordingly hereunto set his hand and seal.

Executed this 4th day of March, 1998.
