Dear Sean Toner,

This letter is to certify that the corporation The Institute For Yoruba Diaspora Studies, Inc.; Document# N98000002017 did file its 2001 corporation annual report/uniform business report within time restraints given, in accordance with Florida Statutes.

Check numbers 3027 and 3028 drawn on Bank of America, was mailed out on September 08, 2001. I respectfully ask that you recheck your records and reinstate or corporations according ling. If there are any questions or concern regarding the validity of this financial matter, please do not hesitate to contact us immediately. Thank you in advance for your keen attention to this matter. We trust that this situation will be handled in a timely manner.

Please also be advised that in my previous correspondence I indicated that the check was mailed out on September 10, 2001, after receiving our bank ledger and metered stamp ledger, I found that the letter was mailed out on September 8, 2001 as I corrected it in the preceding paragraph.

I would also like to apologize for the lateness of this letter. Please be advised that we were out of the country in Nigeria, Africa for three months, which is why this matter was not dealt with sooner. We did however send out the check before the September 12, 2001 deadline date. We respectfully request that you please waive the reinstatement fee. Pursuant to your correspondence dated October 30, 2001, Letter Number: 101A00059459, we have enclosed payment, the completed UBR and the request for the reinstatement waiver.

Sincerely,

Nakia Bowling
