amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association; and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he/she had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful; except, the Association shall be relieved of responsibility under this provision in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his/her duty to the Association unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine, upon application, that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity, to be held harmless and/or to have his/her defense assumed for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, in and of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association; and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he/she had no reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful.

2. Any action under Paragraph 1 above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification or hold harmless or provision of a defense to a director, officer, employee or agent is proper under the circumstances because he/she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Paragraph 1 above. Such determination shall be made first, (a) by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or second, (b) if such quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in written opinion, or third, (c) by approval of the members of the Association.

3. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he/she is entitled to be indemnified, held harmless or provided a defense by the Association as authorized herein.

4. The rights set forth in Paragraph 1 above shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification, hold harmless and/or provision of a defense may be entitled under the laws of the State of Florida, any Bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise; and as to action taken in an official capacity while holding office, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

5. The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him/her and incurred by him/her in any such capacity, as arising out of his/her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify, hold harmless and/or provide a defense to him/her against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE X. - BYLAWS

The Bylaws shall be adopted by the Board and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the Declarant, the Directors and/or members in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI. - AMENDMENTS

B. If a majority of the directors, and the members holding a majority of the votes of the Association, sign a written statement manifesting their intention that an amendment to these Articles be adopted, then the amendment shall thereby be adopted as though the above requirements had been satisfied; or

C. Until Declarant has conveyed 100% of the Lots within the Property or as long as Declarant has the right to appoint any director to the Board, these Articles may be amended by resolution adopted by a majority of the Board, without approval of the members.

2. No amendment shall make any changes in the qualifications for membership or in the voting rights of members without approval by all of the members and the joinder of all Institutional Lenders holding mortgages upon the Lots. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Declaration. Until Declarant has conveyed 100% of the Lots within the Property, no amendment shall make any changes which would in any way affect any of the rights, privileges, powers or options herein provided in favor of, or reserved to, the Declarant, unless the Declarant shall join in the execution of the amendment, including, but not limited to, any right of the Declarant to appoint directors pursuant to Article VII.
