To whom it may concern:

Enclosed please find our check for $131.75 to cover two (2) years' fees + $8.75 for a certificate of status. We are fervently hoping to avoid the reinstatement fee for the following reason(s):

Our Secretary/Registered agent resigned abruptly last year and took many months to hand over our corporate records and other paperwork to the new secretary. By the time she got around to handing it all over, the September 12th deadline was long gone. In fact it was November. I went on-line to try to rectify the situation; however, your website said that the screen(s) for filing UBR's would not be up and running again until January. So here I am, begging your forgiveness. We are, after all, a very small non-profit organization with less than 100 members and only a couple thousand dollars in our treasury.

I personally do not see the need to retain corporation status, but there are those among us who believe it will protect us from being sued. Is that really so? Could someone please e-mail me with an answer to this question? My e-mail address is printed above.

We would surely appreciate it if you would have mercy on our organization & reinstate us gratis (i.e. waive the fee)!

Most Sincerely,

Donna M. Luty
President, Oakland Hills Homeowners Assoc.
