Dear Sharon:

Thank you for the incredible amount of help that you have provided us. We are in the process of establishing a church and we are trying to navigate our way through the maze of rules and regulations that are required in order to do things in the proper manner. It is refreshing when we find a person such as yourself who explains to us what we must do in such a nice and personable manner.

We only hope that we have responded correctly after your wonderful explanation. We have included the amendments and a money order for $87.50 to cover the $35 fee for the amendment and $52.50 for a certified copy of the amendments.

We will remember your help in our prayers, If you require additional information please let us know and we will respond immediately.

Sincerely yours,

Angel Nunez, Esq

Article III Said corporation is organized exclusively to carry out the Word of God, and for charitable, religious and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VII No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation, for services rendered and to make payment and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. "Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Article IX The corporation is to exist perpetually but in case of dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
