ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
HOLY CHRISTIAN TABERNACLE MISSIONS, INC.

FILED
98 MAY 22 AM 10:17
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

We, the undersigned subscribers to these articles of incorporation, each a natural person competent to contract, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of constituting a missions ministry, to operate in accordance with the laws of God and in non-profit corporate form pursuant to the applicable provisions of Statutes of the State of Florida relative to corporations not for profit; and we hereby covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I. NAME.

The name of this non-profit missions corporation shall be
HOLY CHRISTIAN TABERNACLE MISSIONS, INC.

1986 W. 20th Street
Jacksonville, FL 32209

ARTICLE II. PURPOSES.

1. To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God, according to the biblical mandate, to the end that any person or people group, in any geographical area, may receive the revelation of salvation through the Grace of God, wrought in the person of Jesus Christ.
2. To recruit and disciple workers for world evangelism.
 - a. By promoting the scriptural imperative for world evangelism and christian life style, in order to win the world for Christ.
 - b. By providing New Testament discipleship and missions training so that the recipient may be effective in fulfilling the call of God on his / her's life.
 - c. By creating opportunities for short experiences and / or long term mission placement.
 - d. By functioning as a catalyst between the missionary and other mission agencies.
3. To serve the church of Jesus Christ, by seeking ways to help it to be a more effective christian body, with respect to it's geographical location and indigenous nature; regardless of race, social position, or christian affiliation.
 - a. By helping to create and carry out programs of social action for poor, widowed, orphaned, afflicted, imprisoned, underprivileged, or aged persons, regardless of association.
 - b. By supplying the needed materials and / or personal, to help in regional evangelization efforts; of any church, mission, or agency.

c. By raising the funds needed to support the goals of the indigenous church, mission, or agency; both domestic and foreign.

d. By seeking ways in which a indigenous church, mission or agency may become self sufficient, through cottage industries, or by any means which is tied to the economics of the region.

e. By creating formats by which the more affluent church's, missions, or agencies can become involved through prayer, contributions, and volunteers.

4. To pursue educational means by which the maturation of the church leadership and assembly may be achieved. By means of sound and comprehensive preaching and teaching of the Holy Bible and of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, not only by conventional modes, but also by all means which will accomplish such communication, extension, teaching and preaching, including but not limited to media of communication developed by modern technology; and in aid of such communication, extension, preaching and teaching, but not for private profit; to sponsor, participate in, conduct or engage in radio broadcasting, television, broadcasting, the printing or reproducing and publication of recordings, books, and other materials; the establishment and operation of a school or schools, and the holding and conducting of seminars, study groups, work shops, and meetings, by either resident or traveling minister, evangelist, pastor, teacher, or by any such person which the Christian Tabernacle directors deem qualified; to receive offerings for such purposes; and grant aid and pay reasonable compensation, for services actually rendered to persons, firms, and corporations for such purposes.

5. To license, ordain, and send forth ministers, missionaries, evangelists, pastors, and teachers for the establishment and or up-building of other Christian Churches, Missions, and Agencies both domestic and foreign; in that said persons are in-powered to, preach, teach or by any means communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Word of God; to baptize in water; to anoint the sick with oil; to marry; to dedicate infants; to celebrate the Lord's supper; to bury; to receive offerings and / or any reasonable compensation for services actually rendered; and to fully discharge any and all ministries of Christian Tabernacle Missions.

ARTICLE VI. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The affairs of the Mission, both spiritual and secular, shall be directed by a Board of Directors which shall be referred to as the Board and which shall consist of not less than three (3) members who shall be referred to as Directors. The minimum number of Directors may be increased in accordance with the needs of the ministry as determined from time to time by the Board.

The Directors themselves must be members of Christian Tabernacle; they must possess the qualifications of leadership as set forth in the relevant teachings of the New Testament. Subject to the provisions of Section 741.07, Florida Statutes, and to any rules or by-laws which may be adopted by the Board. The Director's once set in office shall serve so long as they remain a member of Christian Tabernacle unless sooner removed as set forth hereinafter. The board of Directors shall appoint, in addition to the Board of Directors, Managers, as may be necessary to properly carry out the purposes for which this mission agency is organized. Each Manager will serve to carry out the directions of the Board, in the areas of responsibility with which they are assigned by the board. The Managers themselves must be members of Christian Tabernacle; they must possess the qualifications of leadership as set forth in the relevant teachings of the New Testament, and to any rules or by-laws which may be adopted by the Board.

The Manager once set in office shall serve so long as they remain a member of Christian Tabernacle unless sooner removed as set forth hereinafter. The original Board of Directors, as set forth in Article IX hereof, shall be deemed to have been set in office as of the time these Articles are approved and filed by the secretary of State of the State of Florida. Thereafter, in the event of a vacancy on the board, whether caused by resignation, removal, death, or expansion of the Board, the Directors then serving shall recommend a manager, deemed to be qualified to serve, because of the effectiveness and comportment as a manager. If there be no unresolved objection on the part of the board the manager so recommended shall be set in office as a director on the board. But if there be an unresolved objection by a active director, the board shall make a second recommendation, and the process shall continue until the vacancy or vacancies shall have been filled.

The board of directors shall will make every effort to act with unanimity; but in the event all actions of the board shall be with concurrence of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the active directors.

The board of directors shall be responsible for the maintenance of scriptural discipline within the ministry and its membership, as well as for the maintenance of membership standards. In the event the board, after due examination, should decide that a member no longer fulfills the requirements for membership, the person in question shall be dismissed as a member of Christian Tabernacle ministry, and shall be appropriately notified. Similarly, if a director or manager no longer fulfills the requirements of their office, such leader shall be removed from the position as a director or manager, but not necessarily from the membership of the ministry, unless the requirements of membership have been also been breached.

ARTICLE VII. MEMBERSHIP.

The membership of this corporation shall consist of all persons named as subscribers, in Article V of these Articles of Incorporation, and all persons who shall meet the following qualifications for membership and who shall be admitted, in the following manner:

1. In order to qualify for membership in this Missions Agency a prospective member must accept, believe in, and rely on YAHVEH for his or her salvation; must believe that the Holy Bible is the Word of God; must confess his or her faith in Jesus Christ and give evidence of his or her intention to keep His commandments; must be committed to objectives as set forth in Article II; and must submit himself or herself to the authority of the directors / Managers of the corporation and the regulations of this Mission corporation.

2. The board of Directors or any person designated by the board shall determine whether any applicant for membership meets the foregoing qualifications; and if so, the applicant shall be admitted to membership in Bible Foundations.

ARTICLE VIII. OFFICERS.

The affairs of this corporation shall be administered by its officers, which shall be a president, vice president, and a secretary-treasurer, or a secretary, and a treasurer, all of whom shall be a member of the board; and shall serve for such time as determined by the board from time to time. That any person dealing with this corporation shall be entitled to rely upon any document signed in behalf of the corporation by its president or vice-president with its corporate seal thereto affixed and attested by the secretary. All other administrative officers and assistants shall be appointed by the officer who will be responsible for their supervision at the approval of their supervisor.

ARTICLE X. BY - LAWS.

The board of directors shall provide such by - laws for the conduct of its business and the business of the ministry as the board may deem necessary from time to time. Such by - laws may be amended, altered, or rescinded by the vote of the board present at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI. - AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any special meeting of the Board of Directors called for that purpose, or at any regular meeting of the Board; provided, however, that notice of the fact that an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is to be considered shall be given in writing to the Directors at least one week prior to the date of such meeting. Upon adoption by the Board, and upon filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, the amendment shall become effective as to these Articles of Incorporation; provided, however, that no amendment to the Articles of Incorporation shall ever conflict with the purposes and powers of this ministry as set forth in Articles II and III hereof.

ARTICLE XII. DISSOLUTION

This corporation may be dissolved only pursuant to agreement of two-thirds (2/3) of the full Board of Directors. In the event of such dissolution, the Board shall, after paying or making provisions for payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purpose of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Duval County, Florida, if the principal office of the corporation, or by the Circuit Court (or equivalent thereof) of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as the said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that on this day personally appeared before me, an officer duly authorized to administer oaths and take acknowledgements, REVEREND VINCENT BROWN, Vincent R. Brown, and _____, to me well known to be the individuals described in and who executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation, and acknowledged before me that they executed the same freely and voluntarily for the purposes therein expressed.
