of them, and for no other purposes; to receive gifts and give and make financial and other types of contributions and assistance to charitable and religious organizations; to receive any property, real, personal or mixed, in trust, under the terms of any wills, deeds of trust, or other trust instruments, for the foregoing purposes, and in administering the same, to carry out the directions and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income for one or more such purposes authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received; to receive, take title to, hold and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations or other securities of any corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes; and in general to do all things that may appear necessary and useful in accomplishing the purposes hereinabove set forth.

B. To carry on any and all activities permitted to a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida as may be helpful or appropriate for the achievement of the foregoing goals and purposes; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activity which would be inconsistent with its classification as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or any equivalent section of the Internal Revenue Code in effect at any time; but if at any time the Corporation be deemed to be a private foundation as defined by Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, then so long as the Corporation is deemed a private foundation, it shall not, as provided in Section 508(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, fail to require its income for each taxable year to be distributed at such time and in such manner as to not subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, and make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time.

C. To have and exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation organized under the nonprofit corporation law of the State of Florida by law may now or hereafter have or exercise.
