Re: Church name change

Let it be known that on Sunday night, August 29, 2004, the members of Southland Baptist Church met to discuss the need to change the name of the church. After discussion, a motion was made and seconded that the church currently operating under the name of Southland Baptist Church will hereby be known as Hope Baptist Church. A vote was then taken by show of hands and passed with 32 members for and none against.

Pastor Mike Smith and other church leadership will begin to notify the bank, utility companies, phone service company, and others of the change in name. As soon as possible, the church incorporation papers will be changed to reflect the new name, "Hope Baptist Church".

To Whom It May Concern:

I am enclosing the paperwork I understand is needed for our church to change its name and inform you of the new pastor and change in trustee on the corporation papers.

I have enclosed a check for the amendment of $35.00 plus $13.75 for an additional copy. I may have more paperwork than what is needed but if I did leave something out please contact me at the church number.

Thank you,

Kretha S. McClure
