ARTICLE VI
PURPOSES

(a) This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. The primary charitable and educational purpose of the corporation is to assist financially underprivileged children to reach their full potential at home, at school, and on the playing field. The activities performed by the Corporation to accomplish its purposes shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. To engage in a charitable purpose of donating clothes, food, personal necessities, toys, games, and sporting equipment to underprivileged children;

2. To organize, operate, and maintain without profit to the corporation activities for boys and girls, who, for various reasons, would not be privileged to have the use of facilities intended to be provided for entertainment, instruction, recreational athletics, sport or other wholesome activities in their free hours from school;

3. To provide adequate supervision and guidance in order to aid and maintain the basics and provide a means of combating possible delinquency; without limitation of the foregoing, to lease, and by gift, devise, or purchase, to own and operate real estate for such purpose; and to solicit donations and to accept money and personal property in aid of such purpose and to maintain same;

4. To open, operate, and maintain juvenile athletic camps and recreation for underprivileged children;

5. To contribute to and sponsor various recognized charitable organizations in fighting juvenile delinquency;

6. To work in cooperation with private and governmental agencies concerned with juvenile delinquency problems;

7. To make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations as defined in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or as time to time may be replaced; and

8. To solicit, collect and otherwise raise money and to expend, disburse, and dispose of the same all for the purpose of accomplishing the aforementioned purposes.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation:

1. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any Director of the Corporation, Trustee of the Corporation, Officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation and payments and distributions may be made in furtherance of one or more of its purposes); and no Director, Trustee, Officer, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distributions of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

2. The Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended or replaced, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulation as they now exist or they may hereafter be amended or replaced.

3. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

4. The Corporation is organized pursuant to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act and does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit and is organized for nonprofit purposes.
