1. The "purposes" provisions of the Association's articles of incorporation should include the following language:

In furtherance of the foregoing objects, the Corporation shall be conducted as a nonprofit organization, organized and operated at all times exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and, particularly, to foster regional, national and international bowling competition either directly or by contributions to organizations that are recognized as exempt from federal income taxation as organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall be organized and operated primarily to conduct or support bowling competition and to support or develop amateur bowling athletes for national or international competition within the meaning of section 501(j)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

2. The "dissolution" provisions of the Association's articles of incorporation should be modified (or, if no dissolution provision currently appears in the Association's existing articles of incorporation, should be inserted) as follows:

Dissolution

In the event that the Corporation shall be liquidated and dissolved, all of its assets remaining after payment and discharge of its duties, obligations and liabilities shall be distributed, in such proportion as the Board of Directors shall determine, to any organization or organizations, including trusts, organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, provided that no portion of the assets shall be distributed to any organization that is not described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the County in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the purposes described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
