The Sarasota Literary Society

"To recognize and promote writers who are seeking the highest standards of literature."

The Sarasota Literary Society is an alliance of writers whose purpose is to promulgate the advancement of writing. We will promote the work of our members through publication and education. The Society encourages all forms of literature including experimental and new genres.

Membership is by invitation only. To qualify, applicants must submit samples of their work which will be judged by the Society's Review Board.

Membership privileges include promotion through publication; education in all areas of writing, marketing, publishing and recognition as a member of the Society.

The executive board is composed of published authors, playwrights and publishers whose experience and expertise will guide members in their literary endeavors.

The Sarasota Literary Society is continually seeking new avenues for publication of
