ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY
MISSION OF PALM HARBOR, INC.

ARTICLE ONE
Name of the Corporation

The name of the corporation shall be Church of Scientology Mission of Palm Harbor, Inc.

ARTICLE TWO
Duration of the Corporation

The duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE THREE
Purpose of the Corporation

The corporation is a religious corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes exclusively for religious purposes. Its purpose is to espouse, present, propagate, practice and ensure and maintain the purity and integrity of the religion of Scientology, as the same has been developed by L. Ron Hubbard to the end that any person wishing to, and participating in Scientology may derive the greatest possible good of the spiritual awareness of his Beingness, Doingness and Knowingness. More particularly, the corporation is formed for the purpose of providing a corporate organization through which and by means of which the operations and activities of a church, which as a church is subject to the ultimate ecclesiastical authority of the Church of Scientology International, a nonprofit religious corporation, and its respective successors in ecclesiastical authority, may be accomplished. More particularly, the corporation is formed for the accomplishment, without limitation, of the following more specific purposes:

- a. To serve as a means of promulgating and administering the religious faith of Scientology; and
- b. To regulate and conduct religious services, including worship services, for its parishioners; and
- c. To conduct religious and educational activities of various kinds; and
- d. To foster and enhance the spiritual welfare of its followers.

ARTICLE FOUR
Power of the Corporation
and Limitations Thereon

In the conduct of its activities and the accomplishment of its purposes, the corporation shall have, shall enjoy and may exercise, to their fullest extent, all powers which Not For Profit corporations are permitted by law to have and to enjoy; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that:

a. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes, and no part of the income or assets of the corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private party or individual; and

b. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be devoted to attempts to influence legislation, by propaganda or otherwise, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene, directly or indirectly, in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office; and

c. The corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or successor statutes of similar import; and

d. The corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation described in Section 170(c)(2), contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or successor statutes of similar import.

ARTICLE FIVE
Number and Election of Directors of the Corporation

The number of the corporations's Directors may not be increased above five (5) or decreased below three (3) with the exact number of directors to be fixed, within the limits specified, by approval of the board in the manner provided in the bylaws. The Directors shall be elected as provided in the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE SIX
No Members of the Corporation

This corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE SEVEN
Disposition of the Corporation's Assets
Upon Dissolution

In keeping with the religious purposes to which the corporation's property is irrevocably dedicated, upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, and after payment or adequate provision is made for its debts and obligations, the corporation's remaining assets shall be distributed as follows:

a. To the appointee of SCIENTOLOGY MISSIONS INTERNATIONAL, a California nonprofit religious corporation, provided such appointee is at the time of distribution an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or a successor statute of similar import, which is organized and operated exclusively for religious or similar purposes, or

b. Upon failure of said SCIENTOLOGY MISSIONS INTERNATIONAL to make such an appointment, to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, trusts or corporations which meet such criteria.

ARTICLE EIGHT
Amendment of the Corporation's
Articles of Incorporation

Notwithstanding any provision of the law permitting their amendment upon the affirmative act of less than all of the corporation's incumbent directors, the articles of incorporation of this corporation may be amended only upon both the unanimous vote of the Directors and the Trustees of the corporation then incumbent.
