Occupancy

This corporation is to maintain at least two and a maximum of seven Directors throughout the duration cited in Article 3. The goal of the corporation is to maintain a seven-seat occupancy on the Board of Directors. If this is not attainable, as soon as possible, the vacant position should be filled.

Vacancy

Once vacancy occurs within the seven-seat Board of Directors, the current board shall appoint a member of the corporate body (defined under Membership Section in the Bylaws) as a Director with an quorum of 100% by majority vote, after thoroughly evaluating all of the nominee's qualifications and leadership abilities as stated in the Bylaws.

Terms

The terms of the Board of Directors are until they resign or become decease. If there are any serious problems occurring with any BOD member, defined by the Chairman of BOD, the BOD may remove that BOD member with 100 % quorum and 90 % majority vote.

Roles and Responsibilities

The Chairman of the BOD shall be the representative of the corporation, unless delegated otherwise. BOD shall elect one of the directors as Chairman. The Chairman shall preside over all BOD meetings and elections. The Chairman shall share equal voting power with the other BOD members. The Chairman of the corporation shall have authority over all members of the corporation and church. The BOD shall decide amongst themselves whom will take minutes and provide all applicable documents for each meeting. The BOD is organized to be the decision-maker of the corporation and church.

Voting

The purpose of the BOD is to have equal counsel, through voting privileges. Only when necessary, shall the Chairman make a final decision, which he/she feels that is in the best interest of the corporation, of which decision, may conflict with initial decision of the BOD. All BOD members shall have one equal vote in all elections. Though the BOD and Executive Board (EB) are different Committees, BOD members may hold no more than one position on the Executive Board, if approved by the BOD with 100% quorum and majority vote. If this occurs, the BOD member, as an EB nominee, shall also file an application with the Executive Director. If a member of the BOD decides to be an Executive Board member, he/she will have only one vote though he/she may hold multiple positions. Only Board of Directors and Executive Board (BODEB) members has voting privileges in the corporation.

Meetings

When the Executive Board, as noted in the bylaws, schedule their meetings and elections, at least one BOD member shall be present for the meeting to be official. BOD members shall have a separate meeting once a month, excluding the joint BODEB meeting to be held once a month.

BOD- one meeting per month
