Re: Southwest Florida Council for Environmental Education (Document #N980000069)

Dear Sir/Madam:

We recently received a Certificate of Administrative Dissolution and Revocation for the above referenced non-profit corporation. When I spoke with the lady who answered the phone, she indicated that our annual report had been received, but it had been rejected because we had not placed a small "d" after each of the officers indicating that they were directors. She said that the Notice of Rejection was sent on August 31st, but I have to say I have never seen this document. I must apologize for the oversight of not placing the "d" after each of the officer's names. I must also explain that we have had a mail box at the Calusa Nature Center, and that the mail is only picked up there every two or three weeks. I only received my copy of the dissolution notification last Saturday. We have now rented a post office box downtown, and we should be getting our mail in a more timely fashion. However, that does not explain why we never saw the original rejection of the annual report.

I am submitting a copy of the annual report with the "d" properly shown after each of the officer's names, and I would respectfully request a one-time waiver of the reinstatement fee. We did submit the report on time, and you did accept our payment at that point. I would hope that the State could consider this an unintentional oversight and grant the one-time waiver of the reinstatement fee, since as a non-profit organization it is an expense we cannot easily afford.

Thank you very much for your assistance with this matter.

Very truly yours,

Michael E. Roeder,
Treasurer of Southwest Florida Council for Environmental Education
