A Nonprofit Corporation

Article I. Name

The name of this Corporation is 20/20 VISIONS OF GREATER VENICE INC.

Article II. Purposes

The general nature of the objects and purposes of this Corporation shall be as follows:

Section 1. This Corporation is organized for the purpose of providing organization, administration, and guidance in connection with efforts to provide quality cultural and economic growth programs and activities for the citizens of the Greater Venice, Florida, area and to formulate and promote programs and activities to obtain governmental and community support for cultural and economic growth efforts within the area.

Section 2. This Corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific and literary purposes as defined under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the purposes of the Corporation shall be limited to such activities and purposes as allowed under said Section, or any successor provision, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding.

Section 3. The Corporation shall possess all powers permitted by the laws of the State of Florida to carry out said purposes, including without limitation, the power to receive and administer funds in accordance with the charitable and educational purposes for which the corporation is established, and to purchase, buy, sell, lease, convey, and to otherwise obtain or dispose of real property and personal property, whether tangible, intangible, or a combination.

Article III. Term of Existence

The Corporation shall exist perpetually. Corporate existence shall commence upon the filing of these Articles of Incorporation by the Department of State of Florida.

Article IV. Nonprofit Status and Dissolution

Section 1. This corporation shall issue no stock.

Section 2. No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons except that this Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation. This Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, including the publishing or distribution of statements. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, this Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

Section 3. On the dissolution of this Corporation the Board of Directors shall dispose of all of the assets of this Corporation exclusively for the purposes of this Corporation or to one or more other organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific or literary purposes and that shall at the time qualify as exempt organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of this Corporation. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of this Corporation is then located exclusively for the purposes of this Corporation or to the organizations that the court determines are organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

Section 4. The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by §4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in §4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in §4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under §4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in §4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
