Re: 200. COR Non Profit A/R

To Whom it may Concern:

I recently spoke with someone in your office regarding an Application for Reinstatement form we recently received. I explained to her that we either never received the Nonprofit Corporation Annual Report form last spring or it was misplaced at the school and never given to the right person to handle. She agreed to allow us this one time to file the Annual Report late without penalty since we are a small group of mothers who raise just enough money to cover the expenses of cheerleading and we do not have enough money to pay the reinstatement fees.

We greatly appreciate this and have notified the bookkeeper at the school that another form will be arriving in the spring so it will not be missed again. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Cathy Dundee
