RE: Waiver of Reinstatement Fee

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Patricia A. Craig, do certify that Vanese Agape Family Service and Learning Center (VAFSLC) did not receive the annual report notices. We have been operating all this time without knowledge that we were dissolved administratively. Our donors depend on our active status. As a matter of fact, it was a potential in-kind donor that brought to our attention our dissolution status. VAFSLC is requesting waiver of reinstatement fees for the years of 2004, 2005 and 2006. Please find enclosed a check for $192.50. This amount is for annual report fees for years 2004, 2005, and 2006. An additional $8.75 is included for one certificate of status.

Vanese Agape Family Service and Learning Center (VAFSLC) is a 501 (C) 3 organization established in September 2002 in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service. It was established to provide the community with a beautiful, technologically up-to-date non-profit family service and learning center where all people come to share experiences which: entertain, educate, inform, and amaze, in addition to improving the quality of life.

Our mission is to gather the financial, human, and in-kind resources necessary to prepare children to participate in a free society. To promote and increase parent involvement; reduce the incidence of drug use and alcohol dependency, illiteracy, high-school dropout, teen pregnancy, and mental illness. Vanese Agape Family Service and Learning Center will accomplish this mission by providing character and leadership development programs and services that strive to increase the literary, social, spiritual, mental, recreational, physical, and financial capacity of children and families, thereby connecting them to a society prepared to care for self, family and community.

VAFSLC believes abundant life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is God's gift of promise to the wealthy and financially challenged, young and old, and embraces all ethnic backgrounds. Moreover, we believe that early training of our children and parental involvement are the foundation of a strong family, community and society.

Thank you, for your support.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Craig
