ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
KING OF GLORY, INCORPORATED

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of a corporation not for profit pursuant of Chapter 617, Florida statutes, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is King of Glory, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II

The principal place of business and the mailing address of this corporation shall be:

1116 Woodsmere Pkwy., Rockledge, Florida 32955

ARTICLE III

The specific purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

(A) To be involved in missionary work, ministry and projects particularly overseas in Ukraine and other Former Soviet Union countries, Russia, and Israel and otherwise as the Lord directs.

(B) to receive, maintain and accept, as assets of the Corporation, any property, whether real, personal or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, devise, or purchase, from any person, firm, trust or corporation, to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, but no gift, bequest, devise or purchase of any such property shall be received or made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purpose other than charitable purposes with the respective meaning of such quoted terms as defined in Article VIII and IX or which would jeopardize the Federal Income Tax Exemption of the Corporation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force or acts in amendment thereof or substitution therefor and this shall apply to any affiliate relationship that this corporation shall enter into or come under any group IRS 501(c)(3) organization..

(C) To advance work of charitable groups and any other related or corresponding charitable purpose, including distribution of its funds for such purposes to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent United States Revenue Law).

The general purposes for which this Corporation is formed are:

To operate exclusively for such charitable purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal laws, including, for such provisions, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax exempt organizations under the Code, as aforesaid.

ARTICLE IV

The Trustees shall have the power to admit Trustees of the Corporation in such manner, subject to such qualifications, and upon such terms and with such rights as may be provided from time to time by the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Trustees as follows:

(A) The Corporation shall hold and manage all property received and accepted by it to be administered hereunder, and shall pay over, transfer, distribute, administer, or otherwise deal with the principal and income therefrom, in such manner or manners, and at such time or times, as in the judgment of the Trustees shall be suited to carry out the foregoing language, the acquisition by purchase, gift, rental, or otherwise and the management, care, sale, lease or other disposition of real property and interest in real property, including buildings and other improvements thereon, the construction, reconstruction, repair and/or alteration of such buildings and other improvements, the acquisition by purchase, gift, rental or otherwise, and the preparation, sale, dispensation, lease, or other disposition of equipment, supplies, and other personal property and interest in personal property of whatsoever name or nature, and the retention of the services (whether directly or through contract or other arrangement with others), or employment of professional personnel, managers, administrators, assistants, secretaries, and other persons, agents, servants and employees.

(B) To borrow money, and, from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust or by other privilege upon assignment of, or agreement in regards to all or any part of the property, rights, or privileges of the Corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.

(C) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred bonds, debentures, mortgages or in such other securities and property as may be provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

It is intended, in addition, to convey all other corporate powers to this Corporation as are provided in Section 617.0302, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE VIII

(A) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, Trustees, officers, or other private persons, except the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered when deemed advisable by the Board of Trustees to carry out the purposes set forth in Article IV.

(B) This Corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution or any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(C) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or as amended) or (b) by a corporation whose contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or as amended).

ARTICLE IX

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation to another organization or organizations which are organized and operated for the same purposes for which this Corporation is organized or to such organization or organizations, organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, literacy, or scientific purpose as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code of 1954 (or as amended), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X

The Trustees of this Corporation shall have no rights, title or interest whatsoever in its income, property, or assets, nor shall any portion of such income, property, or assets be distributed to any Trustees on the dissolution or winding up of this corporation. Trustees of this Corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the Corporation and shall not be subject to any assessments.

ARTICLE XI

This Corporation shall indemnify any officer or Trustee or any former officer or Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The undersigned Incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 20th day of January, 1999.
