Article I. This corporation has been organized to operate exclusively for charitable purposes, including but not limited to:

Section 1. The Providing Safe Passage, Inc. client concerned agenda is to provide:

- Food
- Individual and family shelter
- Transportation
- Individual mentoring
- Childcare
- Personal amenities, and
- Self-development workshops

to those community members meeting the criteria of being adult orphans, single parents, sufferers of domestic violence and trauma victims.

Said provisions are made on the condition of program compliance which requires that clients enroll in and maintain perfect attendance at an institution of higher learning or vocational school, attend program scheduled self-development classes, and perform program scheduled activities of self, child and cleanliness care willingly.

Our goal is to develop successful community members and leaders from the ranks of the struggling disadvantaged caught in patterns of dysfunction by assisting them through a minimum of two-years training in formal and informal education and with family and individual support during this time.

Section 2. The Providing Safe Passage, Inc. employee concerned agenda is to provide a people friendly work environment that solicits employee input, schedules staff days off consistently and in advance, and limits overtime to no-more-than ten hours per week.

We will accomplish our mission and purposes by:

1. Raising the necessary funds from contributors,
2. Allocating monies effectively,
3. Maintaining a human-paced and results oriented corporate culture, and
4. Maintaining an effective self-development program for clients.
