ATTACHMENT

Article III:

The Davis Street Community Development Corporation is organized to establish synergistic partnerships between church, business and government entities for the greater purpose of reintergrating the inner city with traditional civic and family values. Also to raise within the inner city the specter of new hope, and a new work ethic for our present generation and the next, thereby eliminating the ravaging generational curses of welfare and poverty. Furthermore to develop community based educational artistic programs for the purpose of molding morally responsible citizens, wholistic in body, mind and spirit by providing constructive alternatives to drugs, violence and illicit sexual activity.

Article VII:

The Davis Street Community Development Corporation does hereby request an effective date of February 12, 1999.
