It is intended that this Corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code, as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) thereof. These Article shall be limited construed, and all powers and activities hereunder shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such extent as would result in the loss of exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No activity of the Corporation shall consist of participating in or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein before contained, the Corporation shall make distributions for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of said Code, and the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4041(d) of said Code), retain any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of said Code, make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of said Code, or make any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of said Code).

Any reference in these Articles to a section of the Internal Revenue Code shall be interpreted to include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future corresponding laws under the U. S. Internal Revenue Code.

Article VIII - Liabilities for Debt

Neither the members of the Board of Directors or officers of the Corporation shall be liable for the debts of the Corporations.

Article IX - Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is/was a director, officers, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the board of directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy. It shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All other instruments executed by the corporation, including a release of mortgage or liens, may be executed by the President or Vice President. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, any written instrument may be executed by any officer(s) or agent(s) that are specifically designated by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Article XIII - Bylaws

The Bylaws of the Corporation are to be made and adopted by the Board of Directors, and may be altered, amended or recinded by the Board of Directors.

Article XIV - Amendment

The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment to them, and all rights and privileges conferred upon the Directors, Trustees, and Officers are subject to this reservation. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, as amended from time to time, unless more specific provisions for amendments are adopted by the Corporation pursuant to law.

Article XV - Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific or literary purposes to such "qualified" organization or organizations as the Board of Directors shall determine. An organization shall be deemed to be a "qualified" organization for purposes of this Article IX (Nine) only if at the time of the distribution of such assets it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Sections 170(c)(2)(B) and 501(c)(3) of the Code. Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed by the court of commons pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the aforesaid purposes of the Corporation, or to such qualified organization or organizations as said court shall determine.
