170 (c) (2), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Code. Any provision elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, this corporation shall not engage in, nor shall any of its assets be used or applied to, activities which constitute carrying on of propaganda, attempting to influence legislation, or participating in or intervening in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall any part of its net earnings or assets inure to the benefit of any private member, except for reasonable compensation for services actually rendered. Subject to the foregoing limitations, and subject specifically to the provisions of Section 617.0105 of the Florida Statutes, this Church corporation shall have all of the rights and powers set forth in Section 617.021 of the Florida Statutes. The purposes set forth in Article II hereof shall likewise be construed as powers.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

The membership of this corporation shall consist of all persons hereinafter named as subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation and all persons who shall meet the following qualifications for membership and who shall be admitted, in the following manner:

1. In order to qualify for membership in this Church a prospective member must accept, believe in and rely on Jesus Christ for his salvation; must believe that the Holy Bible is the Word of God; must confess his faith in Jesus Christ and give evidence of his intention to keep His commandments; must commit himself to participate actively in the fellowship of the Church; and must submit himself to the authority of the Council of Elders and the discipline of the Church.

2. The Council of Elders shall determine whether any applicant for membership meets the foregoing qualifications; and if so, the applicant shall be admitted to membership in this Church.

ARTICLE VI. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall determine policy which may be administered by a chief executive officer employed by the Board of Directors. There shall be an executive committee which shall be constituted and have such powers as are provided in the By-Laws.

Margaret Reynolds	1850 N.W. 62nd Terrace	Miami, FL 33147

ARTICLE VII. COUNCIL OF ELDERS

The affairs of the Church, both spiritual and secular, shall be directed by a Board of Managers which shall be referred to as the Council of Elders and which shall consist of the Pastor and not less than two (2) members who shall be referred to as ruling Elders. The minimum number of ruling Elders may be increased in accordance with the needs of the Church as determined from time to time by the Council of Elders. The ruling Elders themselves must be members of the Church; they must possess the qualifications of Elders as set forth in the relevant teachings of the New Testament and they shall have the duties of Elders as set forth herein.

Subject to the provisions of Section 741.07, Florida Statutes, and to any rules or By-Laws which may be adopted by the Council of Elders, the ruling Elders of this Church shall be authorized to conduct weddings and funerals. Ruling Elders once set in office shall serve so long as they remain members of the Church unless sooner removed as set forth herein after. The Council of Elders may also appoint such other officers in addition to the ruling Elders as may be necessary for the Church.

The initial ruling Elders, as set forth in Article IX hereof, shall be deemed to have been set in office as of the time these Articles are approved and filed by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. Thereafter, in the event of a vacancy on the Council of Elders, whether caused by resignation, removal, death or expansion of the Council, the ruling Elders then serving shall suggest to the membership of the Church the name of a member (who may be an Elder) deemed to be qualified to serve. If a majority of the membership concurs, the member so suggested shall be set in office as a ruling Elder; but if not, the ruling Elders shall suggest another name, and the process shall continue until the vacancy or vacancies shall have been filled.

The Council of Elders will make every effort to act with unanimity; but in any event, all actions of the Council of Elders shall continue until the vacancy or vacancies shall have been filled.

The Council of Elders will make every effort to act with unanimity; but in any event, all actions of the Council of Elders shall be with the concurrence of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the ruling Elders and the Pastor; or, if the Pastor does not concur, by unanimous vote of the remaining ruling Elders.

The Council of Elders shall be responsible for the maintenance of scriptural discipline within the Church and its membership, as well as for the maintenance of membership standards. In the event the Council of Elders, either on their own initiative or after petition signed by ten percent (10%) of the membership, but only after due examination, should decide that a member no longer fulfills the requirements for membership, his membership shall be terminated, and he shall be appropriately notified. Similarly, if the Council of Elders, after due examination, on their own initiative or after petition of the membership, should determine that an Elder or ruling Elder no longer fulfills the requirements for Elders, such Elder shall be removed from his position as an Elder or ruling Elder, but not necessarily from his membership in the Church, unless he shall also no longer fulfill the requirements for Church membership. The Pastor, however, shall be removed only by unanimous vote of the remaining ruling Elders, with the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the membership.

ARTICLE VIII. OFFICERS

The affairs of this corporation shall be administered by its officers, which shall be a president (who shall be the Pastor), a vice president, and a secretary-treasurer, or a secretary, and a treasurer; and such other assistant or administrative officers as are determined by the Council of Elders from time to time. The Council of Elders shall appoint the officers, and the officers shall serve at the pleasure of the Council of Elders; provided, however, that the Pastor may be removed only as provided in Article VII; and provided further that any person dealing with the corporation shall be entitled to rely upon any documents signed in behalf of the corporation by its president or vice-president with its corporate seal thereto affixed and attested by its secretary.

ARTICLE IX.

Such By-Laws may be amended, altered or rescinded by action of the Council of Elders at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI.
AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any special meeting of the Council of Elders called for that purpose or at any regular meeting of the Council of Elders; provided, however, that notice of the fact that an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation is to be considered shall be given in writing to the ruling Elders at least one week prior to the date of such meeting. Upon adoption by the Council of Elders, and upon filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, the amendment shall become effective as to these Articles of Incorporation; provided, however, that no amendment to the Articles of Incorporation shall even conflict with the purposes and powers of this Church as set forth in Articles II. and III. hereof.

ARTICLE XII.
DISSOLUTION

This corporation may be dissolved only pursuant to the agreement of two-thirds (2/3) of the full Council of Elders. In the event of such dissolution, the Council of Elders shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Council of Elders shall determine.

Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Dade County, Florida, if the principal office of the corporation, or by the Circuit Court (or equivalent thereof) of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
