Section F: Declaration of Faith

The holy scriptures constitute of beliefs, faith and conduct. In them we base our functional belief in God. This declaration does not contain all of scriptures but we have chosen a few to base our communion as Christians.

1. Divine Inspiration

II Timothy 3:16 All scriptures is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

2. This deity is comprised of three persons by persons we speak of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Gen. 1:26; Matt. 3:16-17;
IICor. 13-14; Matt. 28:19

3. The Holy Trinity- The primitive church through the testimony inspired and registered in neo testamentary literature, affirms that God is Trinity and so: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. These persons constituted only on and only God, therefore, speaking of these three persons we do not say that God manifested himself on three different persons on the contrary, that God is one and will be three subsistence.

The Father generates, the Son redeems and collaborates with the Father and the Holy Spirit proceeds the Father and the Son in the execution of the deity.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and he rose on the third day, not only by the work of the reincarnation, but that he existed since eternity. So if we deny that the son is real and the eternal relation of the Deity of God, to destroy the truth that Jesus Christ came in the flesh.

John 1:1, 2, 14, 18, 29, 49,
1John 2:22-23

4. The Son of God our Lord having sacrificed himself so that we will be clean of sin. Set at the right hand of the Majesty in the highest, and the angels become subjected to him, and powers, and principals and having been made Lord and Christ begged the Father that he send a comforter the Holy Ghost.

John 14:15, "If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16., "And I will pray the Father and he shall give you another comforter, that he may abide with you forever.

Section G: Ordinances of the Church

We believe in the Baptism by immersion to participate in this ordinance the believers must have the mental capacity, emotional and spiritual and to be instructed in the principal in the holy scripture and doctrine of the church. The ordinance of the Baptism by water immersion in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit or being dead and risen with Christ, should be observed as in the holy scripture with reverence to our Lord and Savior, for all of those that have truly repented, with their whole heart and accepted Jesus Christ as only Savior and Lord.

Roman 6:3-6 Mark 16:15-16

Section H: Holy Communion

Consist of unleavened bread and the fruit of the vine (grape wine) as a symbol or expression of our participation the divine communion with of Lord and Christ. In remembrance of the passing of his death as a prophetic act and his second coming. Our belief and mutual expression of faith. This is a ordinance to all believers in Jesus Christ until his coming.

II Peter 1:4 Matt 26:26-29

Section I: Baptism In the Holy Spirit

The promise of our Father that all who believe in Jesus Christ, shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit. We as believers, should look and await the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. with this Holy Spirit comes power and gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Section J: Holiness

The Holy Scriptures teach us that we should live a holy life pleasing unto the Lord, the Lord says, Be ye holy, as I am Holy.
