The Association shall be conducted as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members.

ARTICLE III POWERS

The Association shall have the following powers:

A. All of the powers and duties granted to corporations and corporations not for profit as set forth in Chapters 607 and 617, Florida Statutes, except as expressly limited or restricted by the Florida Condominium Act, and all of the powers and privileges which may be granted unto said Association or exercised by it under any other applicable laws of the State of Florida.

B. All of the powers reasonably necessary to implement and effectuate the purposes of the Association, including, but not limited to:

1. To make and establish reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of condominium units and the common elements in the condominium as said terms may be defined in the Declaration of Condominium.

Membership shall be established by the acquisition of fee title to a unit in the condominium or by acquisition of a fee ownership interest therein, whether by conveyance, devise, judicial decree, or otherwise; and the membership of a party shall be automatically terminated upon his or its being divested of all title to or his entire fee ownership interest in all units in the condominium.

C. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to his condominium unit. The funds and assets of the Association shall belong solely to the Association, subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held, or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration of Condominium, and in the said By-Laws.

D. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be the number of votes cast per unit as set forth in Article VII of the Declaration for each unit in the condominium, which vote shall be exercised or cast by the owner or owners of each unit in such manner as may be provided in the By-Laws hereafter adopted. Should any member own more than one (1) unit, such member shall be entitled to exercise or cast as many votes as he owns space in the building, in the manner provided in said Declaration.

E. Until such time as the property described in Article II hereof is submitted to a plan of condominium ownership by the recording of said Declaration of Condominium, the membership of the Association shall be comprised of the subscribers of these Articles,

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION

Every director and every officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Association, whether or not he is a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases wherein the director or officer is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided, that in the event of any claim for reimbursement or indemnification hereunder based upon a settlement by the director or officer seeking such reimbursement or indemnification, the indemnification herein shall only apply if the Board of Administration approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interests of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled. The intent of this indemnification is to afford protection to the directors and officers of the Association to the maximum extent allowed by law.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENTS

Any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by the Board of Administration of the Association acting upon a vote of the majority of the directors, or by the members of the Association owning a majority of the condominium units in the condominium, whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles being proposed by said Board of Administration or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the President of the Association (or other officer of the Association in the absence of the President), who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Association for a date not sooner than twenty (20) days nor later than sixty (60) days from the receipt by him of the proposed amendment or amendments, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting, stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form, which notice shall be mailed or presented personally to each member not less than ten (10) days nor more than thirty (30) days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, the notice of the membership meeting shall be sent by regular United States mail, which mailing shall be deemed notice. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice; and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association, whether before or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting, the amendment or amendments proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of the members owning a majority of the condominium units in the condominium in order for such amendment or amendments to become effective. Thereupon, such amendment or amendments of these Articles shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to register the same in the office of the Secretary of State of Florida; and upon the registration of such amendment or amendments with said Secretary of State, a certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the Public Records of Indian River County, Florida, within ten (10) days from the date on which the same are so registered. No amendment is valid until it is recorded in the Public Records of Indian River County, Florida. At any meeting held to consider such amendment or amendments of these Articles, the written vote of any member of the Association shall be recognized, if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented thereat by proxy, provided such written vote is delivered to the Secretary of the Association at or prior to such meeting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article XII, no amendment or amendments to these articles which shall abridge, amend or alter the right of the Developer to designate and select members of each Board of Administration of the Association, as provided in Article VII hereof, may be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of the Developer.
