ARTICLE IV PURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is organized is exclusively for religious, educational, charitable and scientific, that are describe in Section 501 (c) (3), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, including but not limited to the organization, maintenance and supervision of its office.

- (1). To research the conditions which inhibit community cohesiveness, economic development, stable employment within blighted communities;
- (2). To collaborate with Government in studying and solving problems confronting communities;
- (3). To develop self-esteem, self-worth, self-respect, self-independence through employment;
- (4). To revitalize communities for independence and self-sufficiency;
- (5). To provide training and educational opportunities for participants who are moving from Welfare to Workfare;
- (6). To provide job referrals through collaborative partnerships with government agencies, private industries and labor organizations;
- (7). To serve as a clearing house for job opportunities;
- (8). To teach life and work ethic skills;
- (9). To recruit and train low-income to moderate persons in the Trade Show & Production Industries; and

- (10). To recruit and train skilled laborers in the Trade Show & Production Industries.

In furtherance, but not in limitation of the forgoing purposes, the corporation shall have the power and authority:

- (1). To receive assistance, money (as grants or otherwise), real or personal property and any other form of contributions, gifts, bequest or devise from any person, firm or corporation, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of this Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes, provided however, that gifts shall be subject to acceptance by the Board of Directors as required by the bylaws.
- (2). To establish an office and employ such assistance and clerical force as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the Board of Directors, and pay reasonable compensation for the services of such persons.
- (3). To distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by the means determined by the Board of Directors of this Corporation, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the Corporation in the furtherance of its stated purposes. Money and real or personal property contributed to the Corporation in the furtherance of these objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.

- (4). To purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal property, as well as to purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of and deal in real estate; and, as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership.
- (5). To adopt and use a corporation seal containing the words "corporation not for profit."
- (6). To do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further the objects for which this Corporation is formed; and, in general, to have all the rights, privileges and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character, including but not limited to the powers described in Section 617.0302 of the Florida Statutes.

All of the above and foregoing are to be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the specific objects and powers enumerated herein shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation.

Each and all of the objects, purposes and powers of the Corporation, however, shall be exercised, construed and limited in their application to accomplish the purposes for which this Corporation is formed.

The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt in any way to influence legislation or participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statement), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the Corporation: (a) shall not (I) carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3), or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2), (2) engage in any act of self dealing (as defined in Section 4941 (d), (3) retain any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943 (c), (4) make any investments in; such manner as subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944, or (5) make any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d); and (b) shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942.
