ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Lifestyle A Christian Church, Inc.

WE, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of becoming incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations not for profit under the following proposed Articles of Incorporation;

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be;

Lifestyle A Christian Church, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The principal place of business of this corporation shall be; 5991 N.E. 18th Terrace, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33308

ARTICLE III

The said corporation is organized exclusively for purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The powers of this corporation shall be limited to the exercise of only such powers as are in furtherance of exempt purposes as defined in Section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

The Corporation shall have the following powers, to wit;

A. Have succession by its corporate name for the period set forth in its Articles of Incorporation.

B. Sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.

C. Adopt and use a common corporate seal and alter the same; provided however, that such seal shall have and always contain the words "corporation not for profit".

D. Elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them reasonable compensation.

E. Adopt, change amend and repeal by-laws, not inconsistent with law or its Articles of Incorporation for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers.

F. Increase, by a vote of its members cast as the by-laws may direct, the number of its directors, managers or trustees so that the number shall not be less than three but may be any number in excess thereof.

G. Make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations and secure any or its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises or income.

H. Conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or any foreign country.

I. Purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wheresoever situate.

J. Acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein.

K. Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

L. Purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of and use and deal in shares and other interests in or obligations of other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit; associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any government, state, territory, governmental district, municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

M. Lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and re-invest its funds and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

N. Make donations for the public welfare or for religious charitable, scientific, educational or other similar purposes.

O. Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

P. Receive contributions and pay them over to organizations that are described in Section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and exempt from taxation under said section of the Code.

ARTICLE IV

All persons professing faith in Jesus Christ as their personal savior and expressing a desire to grow in a knowledge of Christ shall be eligible for membership in this corporation. A proposal for membership shall be submitted to the Board of Directors by an active member in good standing on such form as shall be supplied by the Corporation and shall bear the endorsement of the said member. A majority of the Board of Directors voting affirmatively shall be necessary for membership approval.

ARTICLE V

This corporation shall have perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved according to law and shall commence business upon approval of these Articles of Incorporation by the Department of State.

ARTICLE VI

The name and address of the subscriber of these Articles of Incorporation is as follows;

Walter James Craig
5991 N.E. 18th Terrace
Ft. Lauderdale, Fl. 33308

ARTICLE VII

The officers of this corporation shall consist of a president secretary, vice president, and treasurer, all of whom shall be elected annually at the official annual meeting of the members of the corporation, and each officer shall be a director of the corporation and will serve for a period of one (1) year or until such time as he resigns or is no longer an active member of the corporation, or until the members of the corporation request a recall election as provided for in the by-laws. The annual election of officers and directors shall be held on the first Monday in July of each and every year, and said election shall be by secret ballot and thereafter the officers and directors of this corporation shall be installed and take office on the first Monday in July of each year. The duties of each director and officer shall be set forth in the By-laws of the corporation. The affairs of the corporation are to be managed by the president, secretary, vice-president and treasurer.

ARTICLE VIII

The first Board of Directors and Officers who shall serve until the next election are as follows;

Treasurer and director

The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary and the Treasurer, and any other member of the Corporation selected for directorship, but the total number of Directors shall not be less than three (3) but may be any number in excess thereof.

ARTICLE IX

No part of the net earning of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Third Article hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, nor intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 190 (C)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE X

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of this corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of competent jurisdiction in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XI

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt rules, regulations and By-laws for the corporation, not inconsistent with the charter or the applicable laws of the State of Florida and to amend the same as may be expedient, desirable or necessary.

ARTICLE XII

These Articles of Incorporation may be adopted, altered, or rescinded in the same manner that the By-laws are to be adopted, altered, amended or rescinded.
