PURPOSES OF THE ORGANIZATION

The purpose of the organization is: to help the Haitian and the Haitian-American citizen living in Central Florida and other locations in the United States and in Haiti to be educated, trained, and to be ready to enter the twenty-first century at a competitive level with their counter parts around their environment. Therefore, the HAITIAN-AMERICAN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION OF CENTRAL FLORIDA, INC. is determined to render the Haitian and the Haitian-American citizen to be self-sufficient and more productive in a such rapidly developing world. Our purposes consist of bringing all scattered and divided brothers and sisters to a common ground to identify our problems in terms of integrating into the main stream of the American society and find the solutions through programs based on education and other possible means financed by fund raisings from the public, private institutions and government agencies. As the members of our organization know and understand better the the problems facing the young Haitian and Haitian-American citizen in their families and adapting to the school system in the United states, we are creating attractive programs at the dreamed Development Community Center to help the kids with their home work, recreation activities while their parents are working two jobs to make a living. With the existence of this organization, speaking English may not be a barrier for people living in the Haitian community any more.
