RE: Dissolution of not for profit corporation, God's Women of Destiny

My wife, Ophelia Carrott, died June 13, 2004. She was the registered agent and Director/President of the Florida not for profit corporation, God's Women of Destiny.

I, along with the remaining three directors, Marjorie McKenzie, Loreta Ford, Elvie Coleman, have agreed that the corporation should be dissolved. Enclosed are the two forms requesting that the corporation, God's Women of Destiny be dissolved. The forms were signed by Marjorie McKenzie, the Director/Treasurer of the corporation.

I was informed by a member of your department that I, as the legal representative of my wife's estate, can request that my wife's name be permanently be erased from your records. I understand that I would have to file an additional fee of $35.00. If this is incorrect please advice. I have not yet decided if I will pursue that option, or indeed if it is necessary. But if I decide to make such a request, please tell me what documents you would need.

Thank you for your assistance. If you require further information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Adlai Carrott
