- (3) To break the vicious cycle of unemployment and dependency, and provide sustainable employment opportunities;
- (4) To create an atmosphere that will foster living, learning and fulfillment of goals;
- (5) To develop self-esteem, self-worth, self-respect, and self-independence through employment and interpersonal relationships;
- (6) To serve as a clearing house for job opportunities; and
- (7) To teach life and work ethic skills.

In furtherance, but not in limitation of the forgoing purposes, the corporation shall have the power and authority.

- (1.) To receive assistance, money (as grants or otherwise), real or personal property and any other form of contribution, gifts, bequest or devise from any person, firm, or corporation, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of this Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes, provided however, that gifts shall be subject to acceptance by the Board of Trustees as required by the bylaws.
- (2.) To establish an office and employ such assistance and clerical force as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, and pay reasonable compensation for the services of such persons.
- (3.) To distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by the means determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the Corporation in the furtherance of its stated purposes. Money and real or personal property contributed to the Corporation in the furtherance of these objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.
- (4.) To purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal
