ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
E. H. JONES MINISTRIES, INC.

(A Corporation Not For Profit formed under the Florida General Corporation Act, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes)

ARTICLE I

The Name of the corporation is E. H. Jones Ministries, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The term of existence of this corporation is perpetual unless dissolved according to law. The Corporate existence shall commence at the time of filing with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE III

The Corporation may transact any and all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Laws of the United States and the State of Florida. The specific purpose(s) for which the corporation is organized are to work with existing churches and ministries of the Gospel to aid them in corporate and public worship, to minister the Word of God to Christian believers, to promote fellowship among the different denominations, and to promote evangelism at home and abroad. This organization will use audio and visual media to disseminate its messages.

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propoganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) and 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV

The Corporation shall never have less than three (3) Directors. The business affairs of this Corporation shall be managed by a minimum of three (3) officers/directors, each of whom shall be of full age, and all of whom shall be citizens of the United States. The Directors shall be replaced or elected for a new term at the annual election of officers of the corporation. The officers/directors shall have full power and authority to make and enforce the By Laws of the Corporation, and to propose, adopt, alter, amend, or rescind same at the regular business meeting or on the anniversary date of this incorporation. The limitation upon the authority of the directors and officers of this corporation shall be such that there shall be no change in the By-laws of the corporation, save and except by a majority vote cast at the regular business meeting or on the anniversary date of this incorporation, for the purpose of amending, changing, adopting, or rescinding the By-laws or the Articles of Incorporation.
